Typewriters for our letter writing inspiration gets our nod today with the novelty Graphics & More Typewriter Inspired Writer at Work Door Knob Sign.

Their tweet about it today caught my eye!

Graphics & More

Last year one of my daily blog posts, Letter writing themed novelty items, was showing Graphics & More with an Air Mail Postcard Love series of mouse pads.

The Do Not Disturb Writer at Work Door Knob sign measures 3.5" x 9.5". They are describing it as good for indoor or outdoor use.

"Your room is your sanctuary. So mark your territory with one of these handy door hangers from the creative minds here at Graphics and More. Impossible to overlook, the colorful design will deliver your message clearly to passersby. Whether you're trying to keep intruders out or invite visitors inside, this unique product will ensure that all who enter know exactly what to expect on the other side of the door."

Their listing price is at $6.99 each. And their site declares free shipping on every order to U.S. destinations.

I'm going to have to get at least one of these immediately! No matter how small our letter writing area, we can still enjoy hanging the door knob sign among our fountain pens, stamps, stationery, and with the typewriter!

Tomorrow we close out the month of August with my monthly daily blog recap. What a very fast month, and summer it has been!

Anchors Aweigh,

Helen
